In the late 80s China development of the market economy, under the historical background, Mr Cui with all his savings from China's northern city of Harbin, arrived in China's most southern city shishi "gold rush", eventually selected form-fitting pants this product, at the time the product is the most popular style of the whole of China, that is why Mr Cui will choose it.

In the following days, he opened the market in northern China and established the brand "Fengming". He gradually started to do border trade (China and Russia) and thus accumulated the original wealth. In 1990, he founded his own factory Jinjiang Chunda Factory and began to produce more products. In the mid-1990s, form-fitting fitting was not popular, so Mr. Cui decided to increase the range of products to cope with the situation. The factory gradually began to get export orders from trading companies, such as swimsuits, dance suits and fitness suits. In 2000, it began to expand the production line and mainly exported cycling series, fitness yoga series and swimsuit series.

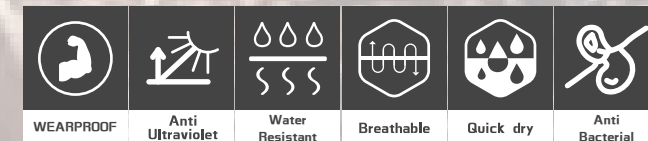

Mr Cui son Salvatore (2009) established a xiamen bounce company, Salvatore think guest need more good service and the company has perfect quality control, in order to let the whole family business have the competitiveness of the development of more durable and the birth of the company, with the development of era and the advent of the era of Internet, founded in 2013, xiamen Aozhibo industry company, factory for small orders, orders for more flexibility to cope with rapid response, more strong ability of design and development, in order to ensure that customers more diverse styles, and small batch demand. With nearly 30 years of sportswear manufacturing experience, we can avoid more risks for our customers. Choosing us is the right choice for you.
